

Join us for truly original filmmaking this week at DCA Cinema, starting with The Dead Don't Hurt. This powerful new western, written by and starring Viggo Mortensen, follows a couple facing grave danger in a corrupt frontier town. Alongside this, we're bringing you The Beast, an acclaimed time-hopping sci-fi epic starring Léa Seydoux and George MacKay.

Also on our screens is Nezouh, a sweet-natured and unique drama which follows a family during the Syrian civil war, and Haikyu!! The Dumpster Battle, the first film adaptation of the hit anime Haikyu!!, which follows a high school volleyball team. What's more, if you haven't experienced the exhilaration of Furiosa: A Mad Max Saga yet, you can catch it at DCA until Thursday 13 June.

Elsewhere, explore the legacy of a cultural icon and 60s It Girl with Catching Fire: The Story of Anita Pallenberg, and we're delighted to bring you a selection of the best LGBTQ+ films in partnership with Dundee Pride. Our Pride season begins with British classic My Beautiful Laundrette and the raucously witty indie film Tangerine. Enjoy!
