Weekly highlights

Fri 28 February – Thu 6 March

Must-see awards season films

Gripping Oscar-nominated political drama I'm Still Here arrives, plus there are more chances to see Bridget Jones: Mad About the Boy, The Monkey, and A Complete Unknown. Plus, hit Korean thriller Parasite returns in black and white ahead of the new film by director Bong Joon-ho, Mickey 17.

I'm Still Here

Fri 7 – Thu 13 March

New sci-fi action from Bong Joon-ho

Mickey 17 blasts off! This dark sci-fi comedy stars Robert Pattinson as an 'expendable' clone worker who is literally dying for a living. Meanwhile, Pamela Anderson dazzles in Gia Coppola's The Last Showgirl, and popular demand brings back The Brutalist and Macbeth: David Tennant & Cush Jumbo.

Scottish drama On Falling arrives

Acclaimed drama On Falling is the story of a Portuguese woman working long hours in a Scottish warehouse, while this month's Dundeadead screening is anarchic DIY parody The People's Joker. Acclaimed Oscar nominees Anora, Conclave, The Brutalist and No Other Land are back on the big screen, and new music documentary Pauline Black: A 2-Tone Story hits our screens.

Anora

Oh My Goodness

Fri 21 – Thu 27 March

Uplifting comedy and musical magic

Disney's live-action Snow White promises plenty of music and magic for all ages, and we welcome actor Ryland Brickson Cole Tews to present Hundreds of Beavers. French comedy Oh My Goodness is the story of a group of nuns who enter a cycling race, and the Japan Foundation Touring Film Festival closes with 1951 classic Carmen Comes Home.

Plus, coming soon...

More great films on the way

We welcome back the Catalan Film Festival, bringing sunshine to our screens, then film fans of all ages can enjoy Discovery Family Film Club: *Flow. The six wives of Henry VIII get a pop makeover in SIX the Musical Live!, there's a trip into the world of A Minecraft Movie, and a very different take on the Snow White story with Schneewittchen on 35mm.
