

Experience the meteoric rise, fall and remarkable resurgence of pop icon Robbie Williams in Better Man, arriving at DCA this week. Robbie takes the form of a chimp in this wildly inventive biopic which follows the star from his humble beginnings to his revival as a solo artist.

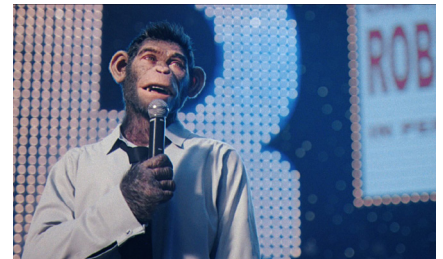

Elsewhere, see Studio Ghibli's Academy Award winning animation Spirited Away, with screenings available dubbed in English or in Japanese with English subtitles. You can also join us for Mufasa: The Lion King, which charts the origins of Simba's father Mufasa, as he embarks on an extraordinary journey with an unlikely band of misfits.

Finally, get your singing pipes at the ready – we're bringing Wicked back to the big screen, this time as a Singalong. Fans of all ages can join in with Ariana Grande and Cynthia Erivo, belting out the catchy tunes from this acclaimed film adaptation of the hit West End musical. Enjoy!

Fri 27 December - Thu 2 January

Better Man (15, 2h14m)

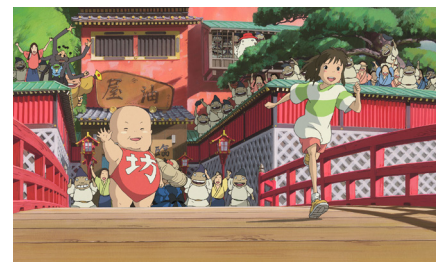

Robbie Williams is played by a CGI ape in this truly unique biopic from director Michael Gracey (The Greatest Showman), which follows Williams as he rises to fame and suffers the consequences.

Better Man

Spirited Away (PG, 2h5m)

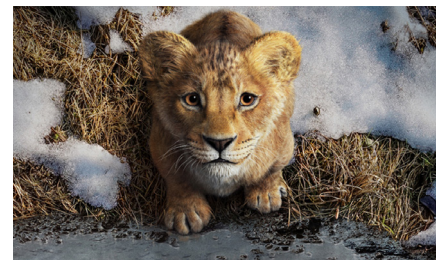

This spellbinding Studio Ghibli film won the Academy Award for Best Animated Feature in 2001. Screenings are available in either the original Japanese with subtitles or dubbed in English.

Spirited Away

Mufasa: The Lion King (PG, 2h)

Told in flashbacks, this Disney prequel introduces Simba's father Mufasa as an orphaned cub, lost and alone until he finds an extraordinary group of misfits and embarks on an epic journey.

Mufasa: The Lion King

Wicked (Singalong) (PG, 2h42m)

Belt out your favourite show tunes at our special Singalong screenings of Wicked, the hit musical feature starring Ariana Grande and Cynthia Erivo as the two witches of Oz.
