Johanna Billing/Keep on Doing

15 September – 4 November 2007

Inspired by music, song lyrics and films, Johanna Billing's poignant video works feature individuals involved in various activities from singing to sailing. Falling somewhere between fiction and document, her films document changes occurring in the contemporary world and meditate on how they affect individuals. The protagonists of her films are not professional actors, instead Billing invites individuals to take part and encourages them to collaborate with their fellow participants in new and often unfamiliar surroundings.
