

This week at DCA, there's more time to enjoy Mickey 17, the darkly comedic sci-fi from Parasite director Bong Joon-ho, starring Robert Pattinson as you've never seen him before. Elsewhere, social drama On Falling follows Aurora, a Portuguese migrant working as a warehouse picker in Edinburgh.

We're bringing back The Brutalist, Anora, No Other Land and Conclave to celebrate their success at the Academy Awards, The Japan Foundation Touring Film Programme continues with Ichiko, and documentary Pauline Black: A 2-Tone Story explores the life of The Selecter singer.

Our next Exhibition on Screen screening is Dawn of Impressionism: Paris, 1874 and Live from the Met returns with Beethoven's classic Fidelio. For more Bong Joon-ho, join us for Parasite: Black and White Edition (4K). Finally, our next Dundee screening is revolutionary parody film The People's Joker, which will be introduced by actor Ruin Carroll. Enjoy!
