

My Coat of Arms

The Peruvian coat of arms features a vicuna (believed to be the wild ancestor of domesticated alpacas), a cinchona tree (a plant native to the tropical Andean forests), and a cornucopia (a symbol of plenty).

- Think about what symbols (animals, plants, objects) you'd like to include on your own coat of arms.
- Draw them in the template below and colour them in.

DCA

Dundee Contemporary Arts

Scottish Charity no. SC026631