From Yorkshire to China via Tehran

Kate Winslet stars in Lee, a powerful biopic about war photographer Lee Miller. There's stylish folk-horror in Starve Acre, based on Andrew Michael Hurley's hit novel, then we're off to Tehran for romantic drama My Favourite Cake. Plus, join us as we welcome harpist Aurora Engine to perform her score for 1927 silent film Xi Xiang Ji, part of the touring Mint Chinese Film Festival.

Fri 20 – Thu 26 September

Familiar faces, new stories

Ian McKellen plays a theatre critic entangled in a web of deceit in period thriller The Critic, while Demi Moore returns to the big screen in highly-anticipated body horror The Substance. There's music and more in Paul McCartney and Wings – One Hand Clapping, and our Surrealism on Film season begins with Un Chien Andalou, screening on 35mm.

Fri 27 September – Thu 3 October

Escape to Orkney with Saoirse Ronan

We're excited to bring you The Outrun, a new adaptation of the bestselling memoir, starring Saoirse Ronan. Plus, Francis Ford Coppola's epic sci-fi drama Megalopolis arrives, there's swashbuckling adventure in The Count of Monte Cristo, and 'zom-rom-com' Shaun of the Dead celebrates its 20th anniversary.
