

Dundee Contemporary Arts

Join us this week at DCA for Disney's Snow White, a dazzling live-action reimagining of the classic 1937 film which stars Rachel Zegler in the title role and Gal Gadot as her stepmother, the Evil Queen.

Elsewhere, French comedy Oh My Goodness! sees a team of nuns enter a cycling race to save their local nursing home. We're bringing you more screenings of Bong Joon-ho's Mickey 17, and Bridget Jones: Mad About the Boy is back by popular demand. There's also another chance to see award-winning features Conclave and The Substance on the big screen.

The Japan Foundation Touring Film Programme finishes with vintage gem Carmen Comes Home, and you can enjoy NT Live screenings of The Importance of Being Earnest and Dr. Strangelove. Finally, don't miss madcap comedy Hundreds of Beavers as it hits DCA on its UK tour, followed by a Q&A with co-writer and star Ryland Brickson Cole Tews.

Fri 21 - Thu 27 March

Disney's Snow White (PG, 1h46m)

Embark on a magical adventure with this live-action interpretation of Disney's classic tale, starring Rachel Zegler as the titular princess.

Oh My Goodness! (12A, 1h27m)

A warm-hearted and hilariously absurd comedy from France's Jura region which sees a convent of nuns entering a cycling competiton.

Robert Pattinson star as a clone worker who must die for a living in this unique sci-fi comedy from Bong Joon-ho, director of Parasite.

Bridget Jones: Mad About the Boy (15, 2h5m)

Catch the fourth instalment of this beloved romantic-comedy franchise, returning to DCA Cinema by popular demand.

The Substance (18, 2h20m)

Don't miss Demi Moore's award-winning performance in this provocative body horror that skewers toxic beauty culture.
