

Kick off the summer holidays with a trip to DCA Cinema, as Inside Out 2 arrives on screen this week. The film returns to the mind of a teenage Riley, just as headquarters are shaken up with the arrival of new emotions. This animated adventure is suitable for children of all ages, and we have special family ticket offers for groups of three and four.

Experience plenty of great films just for grown-ups too, including Yorgos Lanthimos's surreal and darkly humorous fable Kinds of Kindness, starring Emma Stone and Willem Dafoe, and poignant drama Green Border, which spotlights the refugee crisis in Poland. There are also more chances to travel back to the 60s with The Bikeriders, which follows the lives of a Midwestern motorcycle club.

Elsewhere, tune back into Network, the terrifying and timely 1976 satire which won four Academy Awards, and explore what the eco-friendly city of tomorrow could be like with Green City Life, which is screening as part of UK Green Film Festival. Finally, our monthly Dundead screenings continue with folk horror The Moor. Enjoy!

Fri 28 June - Thu 4 July

Inside Out 2 (U, 1h36m)
