

Prepare to be scared as Alien: Romulus arrives at DCA Cinema this week. This new sci-fi horror takes the iconic Alien franchise back to its roots, following a group of young space colonisers as they come face to face with the most terrifying life form in the universe. Remember: in space, no one can hear you scream.

If all that horror has you craving something a little more heartwarming, don't miss My Neighbour Totoro, the whimsical animation from Studio Ghibli, and Radical, which tells the true story of an inspiring Mexican school teacher. We're also screening Tuesday, a poignant and inventive drama that offers a unique perspective on the themes of grieving and loss.

For vintage treats, our Cinema Rediscovered season begins with a 4K restoration of Charles Burnett's Annihilation of Fish and we're going back to the late noughties with Sami Raimi's Spider-Man 3 and Coraline (15th Anniversary 4K Restoration). Finally, our Béla Tarr retrospective continues with the great director's last work, 2011's The Turin Horse. Enjoy!
