Weekly highlights

Fri 3 – Thu 9 January

Romance, horror, music and more

Robert Eggers' new take on gothic horror Nosferatu begins, and there's romantic drama in We Live in Time, starring Florence Pugh and Andrew Garfield. There are more chances to see Robbie Williams' Better Man and the Oscar-winning 2001 animation Spirited Away, plus we're thrilled to bring you the Wicked Singalong!

We Live in Time

Acclaimed new films for awards season

Angelina Jolie is sensational as opera star Maria Callas in Maria, while Dundee's Brian Cox leads the voice cast of animated fantasy The Lord of the Rings: The War of the Rohirrim. Colson Whitehead's Pulitzer-winning novel Nickel Boys comes to the big screen, plus there's a chance to see dystopian docu-drama 2073.

Nickel Boys

Exploring real lives and A Real Pain

Bob Dylan biopic A Complete Unknown hits our screens this week, with Timothée Chalamet as the young Dylan, and we welcome back the FOKUS: Films from Germany season with gripping documentary One Hundred Four. Plus, Nicole Kidman returns in Babygirl, a sensual thriller about a CEO who begins an affair with her intern, played by Harris Dickinson.

A Complete Unknown

The Brutalist

Gripping new drama with star power

Adrien Brody stars in masterful historical drama The Brutalist, the story of a Jewish architect who survives the holocaust and emigrates to the United States to chase the American Dream. Meanwhile, Jesse Eisenberg and Kieran Culkin are fantastic as mismatched cousins on a tour of Poland in comedy-drama A Real Pain.

Coming up in February...

More to enjoy at DCA Cinema

There's lots to look forward to next month, including The Seed of the Sacred Fig, a political thriller set in Iran; The Last Showgirl, a poignant drama starring Pamela Anderson, Bridget Jones: Mad About the Boy, with Renée Zellweger returning as the hapless Bridget; and acclaimed drama September 5 is a powerful look at the 1972 Munich massacre.
